RUGBY TEAM LEAVES FOR TORONTO

Early This Morning by G. T. R.

10 O'CLOCK.

Large Number of Rooters to Accompany Team.

Today McGill starts forth on the journey that may lead them to the Intercollegiate pennant. Early this morning the team will embark for the good city of Toronto and will carry with it the hopes of every loyal rooter. In marching on Varsity with the intention of deciding for this year the resting place of the silver-ware emblematic of the championship the Red and White are starting out on no joy-ride, in tackling the pride of Ontario they are running up against one of the smartest and fastest outfits that has represented Varsity in many years, and are facing a squad that is tutored by the great and only Maynard a host in himself as a player and a strategist of no mean ability.

Yesterday the team lined up for the last scrimmage before the great struggle on Saturday and went through their paces in the most approved manner. The line-up, while tentative is probably the same as will start off in the crucial game and unless accidents occur it will carry on through out the contests. As stated Thursday Flin will not start and will be held for emergencies, Russell will be seen at outside wing with Silk Murphy as his partner, Lazier and Ambridge will combine at Middle wings and the "Siamese Twins" otherwise known as the two McCombes will shout defiance at the enemy from the inside positions and Livshin, with all his pep, brains, experience and fighting spirit will snap the ball into play and wreck the offense of the opposition by climbing on sundry backs as the play is started in his direction. Donnie Baillie will be seen at the keystone position and will imbue the team with some of his scrappiness through the medium of his barking orders—Baillie's activities will not be confined to using his vocal organs, he will also be very much in the limelight as the stumbling block over which the Varsity plunges will come to grief. In his capacity as defender of the secondary line he will be ably assisted by none other than Bones Little who (Continued on Page 3).

RUGBY BULLETIN.

A running account of tomorrow's big game in Toronto will be received by the Daily, and arrangements have been made whereby announcements will be made at the Stadium during the progress of the football matches being played to-morrow afternoon. This deviation from the usual procedure of posting a bulletin at the Union has been decided upon as affording an extra convenience to the student body, many of whom will undoubtedly be at the stadium to-morrow afternoon.

HOSPITALITY OF TORONTO COUNCIL

Cordial Letter of Students' Administrative Council is Received from Toronto

That McGill students attending the game in Toronto Saturday will be afforded every convenience was assured in a letter received from the U. of T. Students' Council. Any McGill student is invited to go to the office of the Students' Council at Hart House to secure information in connection with any of their activities while in Toronto.

It is expected that a large number of students will accompany the team and any courtesy rendered to McGill students by the Hart House officials will be greatly appreciated. It is therefore to be hoped that those going will avail themselves of this privilege, especially those who have never been in Toronto before. The following is the text of the letter:

University of Toronto
October 25th, 1921.

The Secretary, Students' Council,
McGill University,
Montreal, Que.

Dear Sir:—I have not the least doubt that a considerable number of students from your university will accompany the rugby team which plays Varsity here on Saturday, October 29th.

It is the desire of the Students' Administrative Council that all such students should be given every facility for comfort and convenience while they are on the university grounds. I, therefore, write to request that you make generally known to your student body the fact that the office of the Students' Administrative Council, Hart House, University of Toronto, may be used by any student from Old McGill for the purpose of securing information or direction in connection with any activities they may be planning while in the city. Any service that the students of Toronto can render to the members of your student body, through the Students' Administrative Council, they shall be pleased to render.

With kindest regards, and the hope that if you are yourself in Toronto you will drop into the office and make yourself acquainted, I am,
Yours very truly,
General Secretary-Treasurer,
(Signed) Fred C. Hastings,
Students' Administrative Council.

After long years of deep thought on the matter the conclusion has been reached that a movie is a long kiss preceded by a plot.

FIRST DANCE TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Union Informals Here Always Been Popular.

TO LAST UNTIL 12.30.

Welcome News to Former Dancing Enthusiasts.

The first informal dance of the year will be held at the Union next Friday night. The popularity of these dances at the Union is well known to any one in college who is not a freshman and there is no doubt at all that the dances this year will be just as good or better than those of previous years. For freshmen who are just peeping into the gay social world of our fair city this first informal dance is a wonderful opportunity to make a dashing debut. Of course for any man who attended the conversat on Wednesday night there will be no difficulty in finding a charming partner to accompany him to his first college dance so no doubt we will see many freshmen hopping the light fantastic with the little sweethearts they would have liked to dance with on Wednesday, had it not been a conversat instead of a dance.

The sale of tickets commences at the Union at 1 p.m. sharp to-day and if we may venture to offer a little kindly advice we would say that it would be a wise thing to sit near the door in that 12 o'clock lecture and be ready to skip out early to get in line before the next fellow. A thing that's worth while having is worth while waiting for and you can bet that you'll have to wait a few minutes to grab off a ticket to that first dance.

For the further information of the prospective fox-trotters we would suggest that everyone bring along a little extra money in their pockets for the tickets for the dance will cost the usual moderate price of two iron men. Two dollars is a very moderate charge for tickets to a high class function like a McGill Union dance and even in hard times there have always been more prospective dancers than tickets.

The refreshments are to be of a very high order, if possible even better than ever before and will be provided by the management of the Union Cafeteria. The supper will be served in the Cafeteria and will be arranged in two sittings in order to avoid crowding and in— (Continued on Page 3).

FIRST SESSION OF MOCK PARLIAMENT

Party Organisation is Proceeding Rapidly Around College.

Elaborate preparations are now under way for the holding of the first Mock Parliament of the season on November 9th. This is being now under the Literary and Detaching Society as part of their program for the year and bids fair to be a huge success. A splendid Mock Parliament was held two years ago which commanded the interest of a large part of the Student body.

Some very interesting sessions were held in the union and parliament only adjourned owing to the proximity of exams. Unfortunately there was two Mock Parliament last year but it is gratifying to see that the executive of the Lit are not letting any grass grow under their feet this year.

The organization of parties is proceeding quietly at first but it is expected that before long the whole university will be in a great political turmoil will draw every man into its vortex. When Parliament opens on November 9th the National-Liberal-Conservative Progressive party will be in power under the leadership of Mr. F. O. Peterson who is at present organizing a strong contest in the Arts Faculty. The main opposition will be under the leadership of the loquacious Windy Dillon of Law '22 and it is said in influential circles that plans are afoot to overthrow the government at the earliest possible moment.

The idea of a Mock Parliament, always a good one is specially appropriate at this time in view of the impending Dominion elections. It will also afford a splendid opportunity for budding politicians and public speakers, formerly in the background, to unearth themselves. It is often alleged that there is two little opportunities for public speaking at McGill and the Lit are doing everything possible to overcome this difficulty. Everybody take warning then and loosen your tongues for the opening of Parliament.

SYSTEM.

In these days of large Corporations we hear of new systems being installed by this or that company, and possibly we wonder why a company that has established itself in the business world should bother itself about new systems?

It is a well known fact that the larger the corporation the harder it is to efficiently govern the whole, so that each separate part will work in the most efficient manner. Henry Ford has lately demonstrated that a railway may be run successfully by lowering the rates, increasing the holidays and raising the pay. Incidentally firing the dud employees played a large part in his system.

System may well be introduced into the average students' time table, and the results will be no less surprising to the student himself than to those in contact with time.

The busy man as a rule has more time to spare than the inconsistent one. If he has any time free he knows that it is free because the rest of his time is carefully planned. On the other hand the man without system lets opportunities for work go to waste and then is forced to work when he might like to have free time.

Anyone who has tried the systematic method for a whole session will tell you that it is the best. By allotting special hours to specific duties, and leaving certain definite times for exercise and recreation, he finds that his time passed much more pleasantly, and he is relieved from getting hot under the collar at examination time.

Get rid of the deadwood and lumber from the recesses of your brain, and turn the space to good account. How can you expect to be a factor in affairs outside of college if you go slipshod through four years here. Efficient habits are not formed overnight. They require years of careful cultivation, and what better place than the University is there to form such habits?

System in expenditure will prove a revelation to most men, too. How many students have thought to how much they spend or where it goes? Very few! And yet you will hear numerous men say, "Well, I'm dead broke, and it is just the middle of the month." A cash account, no matter how crude or elementary, will at least inform a man as to where his money goes, even if it does not stop him from letting it go there. As a rule, however, systematized expenditure shows where foolish or unnecessary expenses may be cut down.

Put System in College work, and even as the corporation you will find that your efficiency will increase at profit to yourself.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

To-day the team leaves for Toronto, and everyone is in high spirits over their chances for bringing back a victory. It is to be hoped that those free to go to the station will do so and not let them go away uncheered. Show that you are expecting great things of them, and they will go to Toronto more confident than ever.

The Mock Parliament is being got under way, as will be seen by the news columns of the Daily, and its success will depend on the support of the Student body. Many successful Mock Parliaments have been held in the past, and there is no reason why there should not be one this year. Last year the lack of interest was deplorable.

This year, with political interest at its height in Canada, it will be a pity if a Mock Parliament cannot raise enough enthusiasm to warrant its existence.

BOXERS OUT AT PRACTICE LAST NIGHT

Novices Try the Gloves for First Time.

COACH WELL PLEASED

Several Men Moved up to the Advanced Class.

At last night's practice of the novices boxing class at 5.15 the men had their first chance to use the gloves. Owing to the shortage of gloves the men were run in relays, everyone being given a chance to put in practice the pointers given them in previous training periods by Coach Robinson. A few of the men, on their showing of experience, were moved to the advanced class held at 6.15 p.m.

There were seventy men, representing Science and Medicine chiefly, in the novices class and twenty in the advanced class mostly from Commerce and Medicine. Law, Dentistry and Arts were poorly represented and it behooves these faculties to get busy if they hope to win the Faculty championship. An influx of experienced-boxers is anticipated when the Rugby season is over. Men who hope to represent their class in their respective weights should turn out at once. There is plenty of room for every one, and an excellent trainer.

MANY ROOTERS TO ACCOMPANY TEAM

Large Number to Travel Third Class

A large number of enthusiastic rooters will accompany the senior team to Toronto this morning, to see our gridiron heroes do battle with the Toronto "Varsity" twelve on Saturday. That our boys will win is the confident hope of every loyal rooter, but nevertheless all feel that one of the greatest struggles ever seen will be fought.

In several of the classes pools have been held so as to enable at least one of their number to accompany the team. But owing to the long trip and the high railway rates it is expected that a number will travel third class. The third class rate is $7.80 one way, and the train leaves this morning at 10.05. Owing to the time of the game rooters will be unable to secure a return train till Monday morning.

Coach Robinson is taking very well with the boys being a young fellow himself with a young fellowship's enthusiasm, and pep. New equipment is being purchased to permit the handling of greater numbers. Every Freshman and Sophomore should turn out who is not taking part in some other Fall sport to permit him to avoid the tedious "gym" period. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose—Everybody out for the honour of your class—your faculty and possibly your university.

PROGRAMME OF PHILOSOPHY CLUB MADE

Officers Elected for Coming Year.

FIRST MEETING SOON.

It is Expected That Otto Klineberg, M.A., Will Give Paper.

The Philosophical Society held its first meeting of the current year yesterday afternoon in the Arts Building. There was a fair attendance of students at the meeting and the faculty was represented by Drs. Caldwell and Hickson. The chair was taken by L. A. Sperber, B.A., last year's president, and the meeting proceeded to elect officers for the coming year. After some close votes the following slate of officers was adopted: Hon. President, Dr. Hickson; Hon. Counsellors, Dr. Caldwell and Dr. Tait; President, E. B. Copeland; Vice-President, L. A. Sperber; Secretary, Lemessur; Treasurer, Clark.

The new president took the chair and thanked the meeting for the honor they had conferred upon him. He made a few opening remarks and outlined an interesting program for the year. Last year the society was only able to hold four meetings, but this year it is intended to hold about six meetings, which will all be of a very interesting character. The meeting then entered into a short discussion on plans for the first regular meeting. It was unanimously decided that it is highly desirable to hold a meeting as soon as possible. The executive was empowered to see about the first meeting and also to draw up a program for the year.

It is hoped that a meeting will be held on or before November 15th and the executive are trying to secure Mr. V. H. Klineberg, M.A., to give the first paper. Mr. Klineberg is an honor graduate in philosophy from Harvard and has spoken before the Philosophical Society on previous occasions. It is understood that he has a very interesting paper ready on "Phases of Religion." This is a subject that will be interesting to all and is sure to provoke considerable heated discussion, which is just what the society wants above all things. Further news of the Philosophical society will appear in a few days, as soon as the date of the first meeting is decided on.

S.C.A. OFFERS HELPFUL COURSES

Meeting Next Monday to Discuss Religious Topics.

That committee of the S. C. A., which has as its task the promoting of free and honest thought and discussion on problems, religious social and industrial invites the attention of interested students to the following facts.

The churches of our city do not offer to students an opportunity of solving the difficulties which present themselves to thinking minds. The diverse points-of-view of attendants at church bible classes—the lack of a common ground on which these may stand and the varied stages of intellectual training makes this impossible.

In most students it causes a smile when one speaks of "solving" the greatest problems not only of one life, but of the whole world. Yet many men of resource and power can look back to such groups as those going under the S. C. A. as the beginning of their real development.

Even the dullest man appreciates the value as well as the pleasure, to be derived from unreserved exchange of opinion. It is natural that a number of students with much in common yet of varied temperament, seated around a supper table or hearth-fire will produce in their conversation thoughts that will be helpful in the lives of many. It is accepted that if each mind were bent on the same subject many new strong and even startling truths might be unearthed.

There is no student in the University but would welcome a fellowship with his equals.

Next Monday at six o'clock students from all years and faculties will be gathered in Strathcona Hall for supper.

A number of the prospective leaders of groups will be there and all will have an opportunity of meeting these and deciding with whom they should spend an hour a week this winter. They are all men who know students, who are students themselves. They will help you to help yourself.

Among the courses offered are: W. C. Graham, Sharmans' Jesus in the Records J. G. McKay Advanced—G. F. Dowey—Sharmans' Jesus in the Records. Prof. Ira McKay, J. G. McKay. Beginners.

W. A. Gifford—Social Principles of Jesus. Prof. Reilly—Fosdicks—Manhood of the Master. Rev. T. Jones. Open to all students.

Besides these several groups are being formed to specialize along lines of Industrial problems. These will be given later. Each month an open meeting of the combined classes will be held. Every student is cordially invited and urged to take this opportunity.

FRESHMAN'S ISSUE STILL NEEDS DOPE

There remain only a couple of days before the material for the Freshmen's edition of the "Daily" will have to be in. Already the material has commenced to flow in but a great deal more must come if the issue is to be a complete success. Articles intended for the issue should be marked "for Freshmen's issue" and turned in before Monday next at noon.

The majority of contributions have been very short. While the short articles are welcomed there is room for a good number of longer articles to make the issue really interesting. Everyone is free to contribute to the paper; men and women, freshman or senior, all may send in material for the paper.

A special staff is working in getting the material for the paper in order but their work is useless unless they have the assistance of every student. The earlier the copy is turned in the more chance will the editors have to arrange it and make the copy more presentable for next Wednesday.

The success of the special issue next week will determine to a large extent whether or not any other issues of a similar nature will be printed throughout the session. Other colleges are able to turn out humorous magazines regularly throughout the year, there is no reason why the students at McGill should not be able to get at least one feature issue out.

PEPYS AT MCGILL

Thursday, Oct. 27th.—Alack! and I fear me to be but a weak man after all when it comes to swearing oaths and the keeping of them in that I lost twice as much money in a pool as this day. This like that I will have to leave my great gold fob with some money-lender in the lower town. Found this morning by devious and crafty enquiries that my fair charmer of yestereve is one Mistress Narcissa Bathbreath, which seems to me a sweet name and passing musical; also that she is one of those that they call here freshmen, which is indeed a most apt and fitting caption, in that they burble and chatter all the day like a very freshet or running brook. A great fog came down over the town this night, so that I much fear me the plague may well be with us again, for all men say that the coming of such noisome vapours oftentimes presages a pestilence.

TIME OF R. V. C. SPORTS.

MCGILL WON YESTERDAY'S TOURNAMENT

Good Exhibition of Tennis
Against Toronto.
CLOSE MATCHES.

McGill Has Four Points, and Varsity Only One.

The play-off for the tennis championship between McGill and Toronto developed into a hotly contested tournament yesterday afternoon. On glancing at the scores, it might be thought that McGill did not experience much difficulty in overcoming their opponents. Nevertheless the Toronto men all put up a game fight and deserve full credit for the showing they made. The good feeling displayed between both teams was admirable, and there was not one instance of an argument concerning the score. The spectators, of which there were a fair number, showed themselves very appreciative of the game, and applauded heartily every exhibition of fine play.

The tournament was, of course, not finished today, only one of the two preliminaries in the doubles being played off. All the prelims in the singles were completed. In the doubles Ramsay and Douglas, of McGill, were victorious over the Blue and White duo, Guillet and Banbury; this match provided a very interesting exhibition of tennis. A most remarkable match was the one between Larkin, of Toronto, and Morrice, who took from about 3 o'clock till 5:15 before Morrice got the two sets necessary to the winning of the match. In the second set, eighteen games had to be played before Morrice gained the edge on his opponent. Morrice played a fighting game throughout, although Larkin gave him a stiff opposing game, and overwhelmed Larkin in the last set, when the latter's play broke down.

The following is an outline of the tournament:

SINGLES

1.—Guillet (Tor.) vs Ramsay (McG)—Ramsay won in two sets, 6-3, 6-0. The two were pretty well even for the first set, but Ramsay had mastered Guillet's chop stroke in the second, making effective use of a vigorous forehand drive. Guillet, who is captain of the Toronto team, was very quick in the rallies, and showed occasional brilliance, but Ramsay was two strong for him.

2.—Scott (Tor.) vs Brown (McG)—Scott won, like Ramsay in two sets, the score being 6-2, 6-4. This was the Blue and White's only victory; it was a good game and one in which the excitement was sustained throughout the game. There were several sensational recoveries by both players.

3.—Larkin (Tor.) vs Morris (McG)—A very close match, in which Morrice won out in the last two sets, by scores of 4-6, 10-8, 6-0. Morrice, who is Junior Tennis Champion of Canada, showed truly commendable fighting spirit, and "stuck to it" all the way through. He has a very clean-cut style, which is pleasing to the eye. Larkin, his opponent, is a steady player, very cool, and a careful placer of shots.

4.—Burrows (Tor.) vs Douglas (McG)—The laurels went to Douglas, in a match of three sets, in which the scores were 1-6, 6-2, and 6-2 again. Douglas was very weak in the first set, and seemed to have lost his bearings. In the last two he noticeably improved, and mastered the backhand stroke of Burrows with a masterly overarm drive. He finished off the match in very neat style.

This finished the singles netting 3 points for McGill and 1 for Toronto.

The one doubles match which was played resulted in a victory for McGill, was the star attraction of the afternoon. Ramsay and Douglas represented McGill, while Guillet and Banbury bore aloft the Blue and White standard. McGill won the first set, but in the second the tricky lob-shots of the Toronto men almost put them off their game. Douglas tended to weaken towards the end, but Ramsay and Guillet provided no little excitement by their furious fends close to the net. Although they lost the second set, the McGill men set their teeth and won out in the last. Score: 6-2, 3-6, 6-2.

This last game gave McGill another point, making the total score.

McGill 4, Varsity 1.

The tournament will be finished tomorrow.

FIRST DANCE TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK.

convenience. It has been found that in this way that all the dancers can be well looked after and all will be satisfied with these arrangements. While the first supper sitting is on the holders of second sitting tickets will have the two supper extra dances, while those who have the first sitting will dance their extras during the second supper sitting.

Arrangements have been made this year to continue the dancing until 12.30 a.m. instead of closing at midnight as formerly. This will be welcome news to all dancers of previous years who were so reluctant to depart at midnight. And now we are keeping the best till the last.—Chub Le Baron's incomparable orchestra will render the latest jazz selections at this dance. No doubt many anxious pairs of feet will be itchy to get going and will not be contented until next Friday.

Final arrangements, including the order of dances will be announced early next week.

The Football Coach has devised a set of plays that should keep Toronto guessing.

makes flying tackles from a standing position and who would rather smash his head over a play than see it come to successful conclusion. On the half line Carroll, Anderson and Philpotts will combine together in an effort to show Toronto the proper way of playing the back division. Carroll especially will, if he flashes back to his form of Saturday last, open the eyes of the Queen city populace with his kicking ability and his general all around class as a half back. It will be especially pleasing to Dink to display sensational form against the team which kept him on the side lines throughout the season during which he was a member of the Blue and White squad and he can be depended upon to surpass himself against Varsity. Another man who is likely to rise above himself is Philpotts whose progress has been nothing short of phenomenal this year; if this player ever gets started on an end run then it will take every man on the Toronto team to stop him—his two forty yard runs against Queens were sensational to say the least and were the best efforts made by any McGill half in years. Of Anderson little need be said, he is a capable leader, a natural football player and the type of athlete who rises to his greatest heights in an emergency as his work in the final quarter against Varsity testified.

In reserve material McGill is richer than she has ever been and should the back line falter or encounter disabling injuries then the incomparable Flanagan will peel off his sweater and throw his energies into the fray. Should the line fail to show its expected strength then countless men will be ready to jump into the breach and carry on the battle.

Frank Shaughnessy is saying little about his prospects but he has a quiet confidence in his charges and admits that his team is one of the fastest he has ever tutored and one which for gameness is second to none. He has worked doubly hard this year to give the college a championship and will consider his stay at the University well spent if his youngsters annex the title. Shaughnessy is a peculiar man, unlike many coaches of other Universities, in that he is intensely loyal to McGill and regards each pennant won as adding to the honor and glory of the college rather than to his own personal reputation.

The team leaves to-day at ten o'clock from the Bonaventure station and a large delegation of rooters is expected to be on hand to speed them on their way and not only will the good wishes of their classmates follow them but also the earnest hopes of every rugby fan in Montreal that the Red and White warriors will indicate this city's honor as a rugby town and bring home the College title to its proper resting place.

ARTS AND LAW FOOTBALL.

It is to be regretted that the football players of Arts and Law show a little faculty spirit. If attendance at practises counts for anything, then the loyalty of the men of Arts and Law to their team is wearing the zero mark.

We have defeated Commerce, Medicine defeated us. We have yet to meet Science and the result of that game will depend largely on team play. That game will be played off either on Monday, Oct. 31st or Friday Nov. 4th.

It is hoped that the men who have been slacking will come out with the team for practice, Friday on the old Campus at 4.00 o'clock. This may be our last practise before meeting Science.

PARLIAMENTARY NEWS

THE REPRESENTATION PLATFORM ANNOUNCED.

The Representative Party has announced its policy in brief outline, following a caucus held during the course of the past week. It is clear that the keynote is national development; and an examination of the platform in detail shows a consistency of purpose and viewpoint quite unusual in such a period of political unrest.

The Cabinet has not yet been announced; but it is well known that the leader of the Government has associated with himself a group of the strongest members of the House. It is rumored that the factions thus brought together have yielded all points of disagreement and stand of one mind on all vital issues.

It is fortunate that this is so, particularly at this time, and it is hoped that with the Government supported by a working majority, legislation of soundness and enlightenment will become law before the close of the forthcoming session.

S.C.A. CAMPAIGN NEEDS SUPPORT

Results Fairly Encouraging, But Funds Still Needed

The financial campaign of the Students' Christian Association has now been going on for a few days and class representatives have approached a large number of the men in college. The results have been very encouraging in some faculties but a few classes have failed to contribute as well as was expected. The objective this year is $1600 and the executive sincerely hopes that the amount will be raised among the students. Up to date the results in the Arts faculty have been very encouraging, and the Science men are also reported to be contributing generously. However, in Law and Medicine the returns have so far been rather disappointing and it is hoped that before the end of the campaign the doctors and lawyers will open up more generously.

The S.C.A. is doing a splendid work at McGill and deserves the support of all college men. Surely any man who was at the Convocation on Wednesday night will recognize the good work that is being done so it is hoped that they will act accordingly. All up, then, and over the top!

FRESHETTES ARE NOW INITIATED

Revived by Refreshments.

On Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Freshettes filed up the darkened stairway, between two rows of black-clad Sophomores. As each trembling Freshie, attired "en robe de nuit", reached the landing, her thirteen curls were counted; and her green bow-tie was carefully arranged by the fastidious Sopho. After shaking hands with the guardian spirit of the college, they were conducted into a spacious darkened room, where the roll was called. Each Freshette, after swearing allegiance to the college, reverence to the faculty, and obedience to the Sophomores, was led forth to torture. After they were thoroughly submissive, their spirits were revived by refreshments served in the Common Room.

Miss Hurlbatt then welcomed each Freshette to the College. In a short speech Miss Hurlbatt advised the Freshettes to be outwardly submissive to the Sophomores. Miss Cartwright gave her idea of a new and better way of welcoming students to the university.

As a sign that the hatchet was now officially buried, the Freshettes and the Sophomores joined in singing "Hail, Alma Mater," and in giving the McGill yell.

PHYSICAL ED'S. ACTIVITIES.

Second-year students have commenced practice teaching in the Protestant Orphan's Home and the Montreal Day Nurseries. The girls are also taking additional night classes in gymnastics and coaching basketball in the settlements clubs or W. W. C. A.'s.

A meeting of the Undergraduate Society of the M. S. P. E. was held in the Hostel on Wed. Oct. 26. After numerous matters of business had been arranged the following additional officers were elected:—

Managers:—
Basket Ball—M. Reynolds.
Swimming—K. Gilmore.
Hockey—J. Collins.
Lacrosse—S. McDermott.

TWO RUGBY GAMES STADIUM SATURDAY

McGill Seconds vs. R.M.C. and English Rugby vs. Varsity.

For those unfortunate students who have been unable for any reason, or reasons, to go to Toronto with the rosters, the Stadium tomorrow afternoon will be the gathering place. First of all there are two football games scheduled, one Canadian and one English Rugby. At 2 P. M. R. M. C. will line up against the McGill seconds to decide the championship of the Eastern Section of the Intermediate Intercollegiate Rugby Union, the winners to play off with the winner of the Toronto section. Immediately following their game will be the English Rugby game, McGill vs. Varsity, the return game and that which took place last Saturday in Toronto.

Also, at the Stadium and there alone, the results of the McGill-Varsity game in Toronto will be announced. A special wire from Toronto has been leased by the Daily who will have an operator at the Stadium receiving the messages as they come through from Toronto, and the results will be announced at the Stadium play by play as they occur in Toronto. This system is an innovation, and is expected to prove very much more satisfactory than that adopted last year, when there was considerable delay in despatching and relaying the messages, but this time there should be no delay and the spectators at the Stadium will be in the position practically of viewing two games at once.

ARE YOU 21?

The Daily has been requested to call the attention of the Student body to the importance of the forthcoming elections. Any man who is twenty-one years of age, and a British subject, may vote. It is not generally known that no property is necessary to enable a man to cast a vote in Dominion elections, and this means is taken to apprise those eligible of their rights. Bulletins regarding registration are placed in conspicuous places around the city, and the nearest registrar is indicated thereon. McGill men have a real opportunity here, to exercise their political acumen, and to disprove the opinion now prevalent that the student body is apathetic to affairs outside of college.

FENCERS FIND NEW QUARTERS

Diocesan College Gymnasium Placed at Their Disposal.

Yesterday in the Diocesan College gym fourteen fencing enthusiasts assembled to sign up and see their new quarters. The gymnasium is better and more convenient in every respect than places the club has been forced to use previously and there were expressions of gratefulness on all sides for the kindness of the Diocesan College authorities in granting the club the use of the gym. It might also be mentioned that the fencing representative also obtained an assurance from the Students' Athletic Association that as far as it was concerned the fencers were entirely welcome to the use of the gym.

A regular practice will not be held until Monday, but there were a few lively bouts yesterday put on by some of the old members. As there is room for five bouts to be carried on simultaneously, there are likely to be some interesting workouts in the near future. Owing to the size of the quarters it has been decided to limit the number of fencers this year. No definite number has yet been decided upon, but twenty has been suggested as a suitable maximum. A list of the members, it is hoped, will be published in at least two weeks' time. In the meanwhile intending fencers had better turn out and show their enthusiasm to be insured a place on the list.

R. V. C. SPORTS.

Will all the girls who are doing anything on Sports Day—whether competitors, linesmen or anything else—please turn out at 1 p.m. to-day, in the gym, to practice the song and march out. Remember, girls, everyone must be there. It is no use trying to make a success if people will not turn out to practices. Many are enthusiastic until it comes to practices, as was shown yesterday. Don't forget, one o'clock, to-day, sharp, in the gym.

Men of both teams competing in the Dunlop Road Race are requested to be on hand in the Union at 5 p.m. to-day.

SONG BOOK.

Where are the Class Presidents with the "Song Book" returns—your big orders?

Some have been received, it is true, but there are a number still out and past due.

Get them in not later than tomorrow night, and fill them if you can—it should be easy before to-night.

The books are ready—are you? These lists must be sent to the Song Book Committee, C/o McGill Union.

The Man of the Hour

In this hour of Canada's most acute national crisis, the country's greatest need is leadership—not class leadership, not sectional leadership, but NATIONAL leadership. A pilot must be chosen possessing the necessary courage, foresight, breadth of vision and determination to lead the nation safely out of the existing economic uncertainty.

And one man stands out head and shoulders above all others as pre-eminently fitted for the task.

Born on a farm near St. Mary's, Ontario, Arthur Meighen is a true son of the people, a toiler who has fought his way to eminence by sheer ability, and force of intellect. Entered Parliament in 1908; appointed Solicitor General in 1914; Minister of the Interior in 1917; and Prime Minister in 1920.

At the Imperial Conference he was acclaimed by the Press of Great Britain as a great statesman, as a strong, virile, vigorous personality—alert in mind, keen and far-seeing in judgment, and with a fearless determination to stand for the right.

Professor A. D. Skelton of Queen's University, and biographer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, wrote of the present Prime Minister:—"He has already given proof of high administrative capacity. His personal integrity is beyond question."

Of himself Arthur Meighen said to his constituents the other day:—"You know where I stood on this issue in 1908, in 1911, and as in 1911 I stand today."

A Real Force

A Real Leader

Canada Needs Meighen
